Hi there Claire

I've been trying to reach you by phone today, I need to speak to you urgently to arrange a meeting for a small number of women from all groups with the Taoiseach.

I have already made the arrangements with the two representative groups. I would appreciate it if you could call me back as soon as possible.

In light of time pressure and in advance of hearing from you, I am going to take the liberty of calling directly (I have her number from an earlier stage in the process, when she asked us to make direct contact with her)

Best wishes

Nuala
