Re: Exhumation Licence for Grave Ground at High Park Convent

Dear Ms. Clarke,

Further to previous conversations between yourself and Graham Hanlon of this office, we now enclose herewith the following:-

- i Seventy-five Death Certificates.
- ii Thirty-four No Trace Forms.
- iii Letter in respect of twenty-four deceased persons who cannot be identified for the purposes of a search in the Office of Births, Marriages and Deaths.
- iv Complete list of one hundred and thirty-three deceased persons in Grave Ground in High Park.

As you are aware, we require an Exhumation Licence in respect of each of the Deceased on the enclosed list.

Because of the physical limitations imposed on the actual exhumation of bodies, we would be very grateful to your Department if the licences in respect of the deceased on the attached list could issue in due course.

*140 according to LR of 6.8.92
134 appears.*

If there are any queries regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact Graham Hanlon of this office.

Yours faithfully,

Eugene F. Collins
