Dear Mícheál,

Many thanks for your call to me on Monday regarding a meeting of the Magdalene survivors in Dublin later this year.

I am cc'ing Dr Katherine O'Donnell of UCD and Justice for Magdalenes Research, and Sinead Ni Bhroin. I think you and Sinead may have already spoken about this. Katherine and I, and all at JFMR, are really grateful to both of you for your interest and involvement so far - and we're really looking forward to putting proper shape on this plan and making sure it comes to fruition.

I am attaching our draft schedule and estimated budget for the event.

It would suit JFMR best if the event was held in May, on any two days that suit you best, Mícheál. If it makes no difference to you, later in May would be better as it will give more time to organise.

You will see that we have proposed the use of the Mansion House. On the basis of our chat re capacity, we think that the evening event and consultations would have to be in the Round Room - and that of course raises the questions of (1) whether you could help us access the Round Room for two days in May, and (2) what the costs are likely to be.

You mentioned that Fire Restaurant have the contract for the Round Room. We would approach them to see what kind of concession they could make.

It would be wonderful to know from you what dates you think would work, and what you think of the indicative schedule / budget and how you might be able to contribute.

Many thanks again and best wishes,

Maeve
